Support in school

- Support is provided by a wide range of people in school, including:
- Year Team
- Phoenix Team
- Student Support Mentors
- Teachers and tutors
- You can find more information on the Transition website, and on Firefly.

Support in lessons

- We prioritise keeping students in lessons as much as possible. Therefore our focus is on inclusive classrooms:
  - Quality First Teaching (TRUE)
  - Personalised strategies (IEPs)
  - Adaptations to learning
  - SSM support for some
  - Accessibility through ipads
  - Regular training for staff

Student Support Mentors

At Caludon we have a team of Student Support Mentors (SSMs) that support all children and staff across the school in a variety of ways, such as;

- In class support – assisting teachers and students using secure subject knowledge
- Implement adaptations to enable students to achieve learning outcomes and target bands
- Run intervention sessions with students
- Mentor students to support their wellbeing at Caludon

The Phoenix Suite

- Within the main body of the school, the Inclusion /SEND Team are based here.
- All students follow a mainstream timetable but they might come to Phoenix from time to time for support or advice.
- Some interventions run in Phoenix, including:
  - Mentoring
  - Intervention with an SSM
  - Break/lunch club
  - Intervention with specialist teacher
  - Assessments/intervention with external agency
  - Attendance support
  - Sensory room and therapy dog

The SEND Register

- We gather information from primary schools, parents and carers
- Students remain on the SEND register initially
- Student data and information is reviewed termly and students may be removed from the SEND Register if making sustained progress
- By October half term, all students with SEND have a Time for Me conversation and have an Individual Education Plan in place
- IEP shared with all staff
- All parents have access to the IEP (on Provision Map)
- Half-termly correspondence from Caludon
- Year 7 students with an EHCP will have their annual review in the Autumn Term
